NO SUBSIDY FOR COLLEGE; BILL DEFEATED

Colleges of Ohio Relieved in Defeat of Measure Which Was Unfair — Warm
Contest At Finish

The Wilmington college subsidy bill offered in the legislature by Sen. (?) Marshall of this county, lies in the legislative graveyard. It really was a corpse from last Thursday, but the sponsors held on thing, while there was life there was some hope. From that day until Tuesday it never regained consciousness. The post mortem revealed that it was suffering from a cancerous affection from which there was no hope. Once the legislative surgeons cut into the body of the bill, conditions were found worse than the original diagnosis indicated and the bill was interred with out embalming or ceremony.

With the interests of some forty other colleges at stake the contest over this bill, which was termed the most vicious and underhanded legislation, backed with public sentiment, it was going to be a Roman holiday for Governor Donahay, when the veto pen was once in operation. The subsidy bill attracted as much or more interest than did the famous Bible reading bill two years ago, and the Governor's mail began to show results when at one time it looked like the measure, regardless of all the misrepresentation, to secure passage, might become a law.

As for log rolling, juggling and legislative evading, nothing like it has happened in years in the Ohio legislature. The issue was not political and party lines were not drawn. The passage of the bill insured almost a war among church supported institutions and several thousand alumni friends of the institutions. Indications pointed to a new issue in politics in the state but the defeat of the bill clears the atmosphere in legislative circles for other business that was held up over this contest.

Representatives Knapp, Medina, Hanes, Warren, Stewart, Leavitt, and the bill.

At the Monday evening session Rep. Hazard, Clinton, co-author of the bill, introying to answer charges against the bill, stated that he could give information privately, but not publicly, why the measure should pass. This is believed to have been the means of venting some of the original supporters of the bill. It also gave the opponents courage and they lashed the measure to death in leading it with all kinds of charges.

Rep. Knapp read a list of figures which he said represented amounts

NEW INDUSTRY PROBABLE IN NEAR FUTURE

Carter N. Abel Purchases Site
For New Industry — New Process In Manufacture
Of Dolomite

Indications now are that Cedarville will in the near future have a new enterprise and one more industrial concern to the present prosperous institutions located here.

Mr. Carter N. Abel, who recently disposed of his holdings in the Abel Magnesia Co., which he originated and was a heavy stockholder, on Tuesday purchased the C. H. Crouse property on Miller street. This property was what was known as the J. D. Williamson home and consists of a large brick residence and a good sized lot to the south of the lot on which the residence is located. The vacant lot faces on Railroad street and will permit of switching accommodations when wanted. The deal was made by M. W. Collins. Possession is to be given at once for the vacant lot.

While the Herald cannot state at this time the exact nature of the product to be manufactured, we understand that Mr. Abel has a patent on an electric kiln for the burning of what is known as dolomite a product used in the manufacture of steel and refined iron. Mr. Abel has been at work for some time developing the new process which has been approved by some of the largest steel companies in the country.

We understand there has been great advancement in methods used in steel manufacture in the past year or so and that Mr. Abel has been in touch with many of these companies who sought a certain standard of the dolomite.

Mr. Abel developed the electric kiln and holds the patent so we understand. It is also rumored that outside interests have tried to interest Mr. Abel in other locations and we are glad to know that he has decided to remain in Cedarville and start this industry here.

Mr. Abel left Tuesday noon on a definite information as to future plans cannot be given at this time.

Now In Smoke of Battle Against Dreaded Corn Borer

Under direct command of A. F. Woods, Director of Scientific Work, Department of Agriculture, and backed by a $10,000,000 Federal appropriation, the government forces are making a determined effort to wipe out the European corn borer which threatens our crops. Destruction by fire before May 1 of all corn stalks, cobs, and stubble in infested areas is the only effective method.

COLLEGE TEAM DEFEATS DELCO

Last Friday night at the gymnasium the College basketball team registered a noble victory over the Delco-Light team of Dayton, the boys winning 22 to 12 and girls 16-10. The boys game was slow and uninteresting. Naylor led in the scoring with 8 points. Captain Little played a nice game. Ward, also counting 3 points.

With the Tanner started. This forward the Delco team sank four good form. For the Delco girls Little was the outstanding star.

Wednesday night at the Alford the locals met real professionals An All-Star team, picked from Dayton's best, took a game by the score of 28-22. The visitors presented a company of fast dribblers, shifting passes and accurate shots. During the first half, not one field goal was made by Cedarville. At the half Dayton led by a 19-5 score. In the last period the visitors slowed up their pace and the Borstites, taking advantage of every opportunity, drew up to within 8 points of the victors.

For Cedarville Little and Rockhold played best. Matusoff and Longneck were the scoring aces of the Dayton quintet. Sackstetter played a fine guard game. All were former college basketball stars.

In the preliminary Cedarville High Second team lost to Selma by a score of 19-8.

WHY WORRY? HERE IS YOUR FARM RELIEF

Both houses of the Ohio legislature a few weeks ago endorsed the "Mary McLaughlin" farm relief bill in the interest of the farmer. President Coolidge applied the veto axe to and the measure died.

Its interest in an economic proposition and defeated the proposed salary bill for state officers. Wednesday the upper house discovered its mistake, reconsidered its former action and raised salaries—probably in the interest of farm relief.

Governor salary increased from $10,000 to $15,000.

Lieutenant Governor from $2,000 to $3,000.

Auditor of State, Treasurer, Attorney General, Secretary of State from $6,000 to $7,500.

Industrial Commission members from $5,000 to $6,000.

Civil Service Commissioners from $4,000 to $5,000.

State Tax Commission, that added increased values to tax values in this county was increased from $4000 to $6,000.

STREET REPAIR BEFORE COUNCIL

Council met Monday evening when matters of business were transacted and the usual monthly bills allowed.

There was some discussion as to street repair for Xenia ave., when the weather opens up. The street is much in need of repairs at this time.

Mayor McFarland reported $80 collected as fines and licenses for the month.

B. E. McFarland, chairman of the Post committee read a letter from a Jamestown physician that caused a bit of comment and some jesting. It concerned what the physician termed a pauper case here yet the Poor committee or any member of council had not been solicited for aid. Mr. McFarland stated that he had presented the letter to Solicitor Harry D. Smith, who held that the law did not provide for hospital bills and council could not legally pay them. Medical aid in the corporation could be provided but under physicians employed by council. In as much as the State Bureau of Accounting has approved of the plan adopted by council, which was laid out under the present law, council will continue to provide relief to the needy in conformity to the law. Any other course would make the members of council personally responsible for bills incurred.

A Political Debt

The following is taken from the Columbus Dispatch and is a communication commending the Dispatch for opposing the Wilmington subsidy bill. The Herald used part of the same editorial referred to in our last issue.

"I am under the impression that editors, like preachers, do not get so much praise, but are discussed and sometimes 'cussed'."

With to commend you for your editorial on Wilmington college. I had just written a letter to Governor Donahay covering similar point. I should likely know something about Wilmington college and Clinton county. Of 50 years' ministry I have spent over a fourth of it in Clinton. Last week in visiting I covered a large part of the county. The people generally are opposed to the bill. I was at Wilmington three times in the interest of Sen. Willis' preferment. At commencement I said to some good Quakers, whose fellowship and friendship I have enjoyed for over 40 years, "How about Willis? You have Cooper here and a Cooper crowd." I was told if Cooper was elected they thought they might get state aid for the school.

I told Senator Marshall of Greene, whom I have known from boyhood, that I felt it was an effort to pay a political debt.

HIGH SCHOOL WINS IN S. W. MEET

(By Lawrence McLean)

Once again five Red Jerseyed lads representing Cedarville High School have emerged from the field of conflict, victorious.

When the Southwestern District Class B Tournament started last Friday, Cedarville and West Mansfield were the teams to start the "ball a rolling." At the crack of the gun live red streaks dashed back and forth across the floor, now to score, now to guard, until the quarter ended with the overwhelming score of 14 to 1 in Cedarville's favor. At the half a score of 21-8 was recorded. In this period Jones, Cedarville's stellar forward caged six goals and a foul. In the second frame the local lads rested, having secured themselves a snug lead, saving themselves for the evening game. During the final few minutes Captain Wilson injured his ankle and was forced to leave the game but Bates, who replaced him, played a fine game the balance of the braces. Every man on the team broke into the score column with the exception of Wilson, who was content to play a fine guarding game. The game ended with a 29 to 17 victory of Cedarville.

By virtue of this victory the team earned the right to meet the East High School crew of Xenia at 8:30 on Friday night. This team was rather a puzzle as far as their ability was concerned. Not having played in the County Tournament and not being able to get any "dope" on them, Cedarville was not a little worried as to the outcome. But when the teams had battled about five minutes what ever hopes Xenia East had of victory were dashed to the ground by the locals.

The half ended 15-10 with a 29-15 final score.

This Friday evening Cedarville returns to Dayton for the semi-finals and will meet Plattsburg. Plattsburg defeated Cedarville once this season but the locals are now playing a far better game now and high hopes are entertained for a victory.

The game starts at 4 o'clock. As Cedarville is the lone survivor from Greene county, a large crowd of rooters will go over to pull for the boys.

JAIL DELIVERY PLOT FOILED BY SHERIFF

Judge Gowdy's Paroled Auto-
Thief Attempts Parole Of Bootlegger By Hack-
saw Method

Sheriff Ohmer Tate is on the job. A well planned attempt of jail delivery was foiled by the Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff George Sugden and Deputy Kenneth Barry, Sunday when they placed Elmer Bowermaster under arrest when he came to the jail with hack-saws tied to his leg to be used by prisoners in sawing their way to liberty.

The Sheriff had advance information that something was going to happen and he quietly let the plans go on but was on the job at the right time to get the guilty outside party.

It is intimated that Earl Cline, 21, Wilson, who was content to play a fine guarding game. The game ended with a 29 to 17 victory of Cedarville.

When Bowermaster called he was admitted but before getting to see his friend was told that he must be searched. Three saws were securely strapped to each side of each leg and the socks pulled over for concealment.

Bowermaster is under parole from a sentence to the Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield, for auto theft. He was recently arrested for parole violation but later given liberty by Common Pleas Judge R. L. Gowdy.

Cline is serving a $1,000 fine for bootlegging from Mayor Prugh's court in Xenia. He was charged with selling liquor to two boys, one of whom almost died after drinking the booze.

Bowermaster will no doubt be sent back to Mansfield but this is a matter for Judge Gowdy to decide. Whether Bowermaster goes back or not it is certain he will not be permitted to make friendly calls at the jail.

Sheriff Tate states that he no longer permits visitors to visit with the prisoners, other than through the barred door. Doctors and attorneys only will get behind the bars to talk to prisoners.

The Sheriff is responsible only for the prisoners in the jail and is expected to keep them there. He also can deny paroled prisoners admittance. They are responsible to Judge Gowdy if released from his Court.

YELLOW SPRINGS CITIZENS GIVE APPROVAL FOR W. W.

Despite the fact that a $60,000 bond issue was defeated by Yellow Springs citizens last fall, plans are now under way for a waterworks plant. Several days ago a mass meeting was held at which time C. C. Netz, of Stranahan, Harris and Optis, a Toledo Bonding Company, explained how a plan can be devised for the waterworks plant without a large bond issue and no increase in taxation.

Mr. Walker of Jennings-Lawrence Co., engineers, Columbus, also was present.

The unanimous approval of the mass-meeting was that council should proceed and gather data and have the survey made and report at another mass meeting.

OHIO SPENDS $5,000,000 ANNUALLY ON ONE CLASS OF INSANE PATIENTS

This is the fifteenth of a series of articles that will appear each week in this newspaper dealing with Ohio's problem of increasing insanity. These articles are sponsored by the Ohio Association for the Welfare of the Mentally Sick, which has but one objective, namely, more scientific and more humane treatment of mentally sick patients in state hospitals and the rapid rehabilitation of these unfortunates.

Mental sickness usually starts early in life of the patient. The actual delusions, changes in conduct, etc., may be rather late manifestations and are the usual signs that are looked for, which cause the patient to be sent to an asylum. Nature, unaided, has very great defensive powers and this permits the disease to be present for many years before such symptoms crop out. The same is true in heart disease and kidney disease, artery disease, tuberculosis.

The greatest aid to the physician in the treatment of any disease is his ability to discover it early, before there has been much damage. This likewise applies to mental sickness. The earlier the diseased condition is discovered, or the earlier the causes of mental sickness are discovered, the better chance there is of restoring the patient to normal.

IN HIGH SCHOOL PERIOD

A very high percentage of mental disorders can be discovered during the high school period. The actual advanced delusional or hallucinational stages may not be discovered but the physical factors and the personality changes can be discovered. Their discovery and correction at that time not only will tend to prevent the onset of the mental disease, itself, later, but will tend to prevent the onset of other physical diseases that rate so high in our mortality tables. Mistakes may be made in advanced work of this character with the school child—that is, a given case may be thought to be an incipient case of mental sickness that might never develop into mental illness, but the appropriate corrective measures at that time will at least aid materially in the mental development of the child in any case.

To catch these cases early we must employ skilled medical examiners who have been especially trained in early discovery of mental disease. We can not depend upon visiting nurses to carry on this work because they have not been trained for such work and when they do discover a case it is unusually in the advanced stages, indicating that much valuable time has been lost in the treatment.

WHAT IT MEANS TO SOCIETY

Every case so discovered and treated early means that society is saved the expense of later commitment with less chance of recovery. One thousand cases of one type of mental disease are being sent into our state hospitals in Ohio annually. They cost on an average of $5,000 a piece to the state, for their average of 1 years of custodial care. We spend approximately $5,000,000 annually on the upkeep of a class of patients that might have been saved the advent of mental sickness had their trouble been discovered early. The human equation of sorrow and sadness that might have been prevented cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

The Ohio Association for the Welfare of the Mentally Sick seeks to do all in its power to prevent the onset of mental sickness through a program that will give every child the benefit of a physical and mental examination at such an early time as will tend to assist it in avoiding mental sickness.

SUPREME COURT DECISION CAUSES STIR

The decision of the United States Supreme Court has upset justice and mayors courts all over Ohio. The split fee system whereby justice and mayors courts profit by the size of the fine levied has stopped. The Crabb prohibition act in Ohio has been reduced to scrap for such courts. The system is not fair. It makes no difference what the nature of the charge is. The justice courts, while not mentioned are no doubt included in meaning of the decision. Hundreds of Ohio justices have been drawing fees yearly that reached $5,000 and over. It was not a matter of law enforcement as it was profit for the court.

John S. Rutledge, a justice of peace near Cleveland, who was formerly a prominent official in the Anti Saloon League, has endorsed the Court decision and has issued the most sensible statement we have read. He says: "Courts are not to make money, but to enforce the law."

The decision is hailed with joy among the automobile clubs. Thousands of motorists have been hauled in a wayside justice court and soaked that the justice and constable could get big fees. Many of these courts were officered by men, particularly near big cities, who were without principle, and in a number of instances men with prison records.

Such a condition has bred disrespect for law instead of the proper respect. Law enforcement with far too many people was looked upon as being used in small courts.

From the prohibition standpoint there is no cause for alarm. The salaried officer can still operate under the present law. Probate Judges and Common Pleas judges have all the power they ever had. The for-profit justice court, as well as the wayside court have been dealt a death blow, which should have come months ago.

In the opinion of many the justice court has served its day and is no longer necessary. When this court first came into existence there were fewer other courts. People then lived many miles from the county seat by the mode of travel in those days. Today we are only an hours ride apart in most any county.

Greene County is no different than many other counties in Ohio. The Common Pleas Judge has little to do. The Probate Court is handling by far the majority of cases. With the judges in Common Pleas Courts busy in their own counties hearing cases instead of in other counties, where they draw $10 a day and all expenses in addition to their regular salary, conditions might in the future be different.

The only complaint that should be heard over the decision ought to come from the officers who have been reaping a harvest in big fees. The Supreme Court has settled the controversy for all time.

The foes of prohibition may jolly now but they will find that the same law still exists in Ohio but that sentences to the guilty will be handed out by regular salaried judges.

MOTOR DRIVER HELD UNDER $1,200 BOND IN PROBATE

E. D. Rogers, Washington C. H. is charged with driving while intoxicated and is held on a $1,200 bond. Rogers hit the Ed Ballard car on the Trebaine bridge last January. Charges of driving an automobile while intoxicated, reckless driving and failing to stop were filed in Probate Court.

The charges were sent to Washington C. H. to arrest Rogers but no action was ever taken in that county. This week, he driving through Xenia he was recognized by Dilver Belden, who secured Deputy Sheriff Sugden and the two chased Rogers to a point east of Jamestown before he was overtaken. He offered resist to the officers and another charge may be lodged against him.

ABOUT THE PELICAN

"I call lots of things pelican," said young Peter Pelican. "I even call it a party to be a pelican! Now some birds are so ordinary but not a pelican."

"A pelican is unusual. Perhaps some creatures are glad that there are not more queer ones like ourselves about. But if they are I do not agree with them."

"We are different looking. We have such long, long golden brown bills or beaks—one piece of course you understand."

"Then we have beautiful white feathers and we're dressy and important looking."

"Our long, long bills are so unusual. Now some animals and some people look so much alike. You can't tell them apart very well. But there is no mistaking a pelican."

"You might see two little birds belonging to quite different families and you would not be able to tell which one belonged to which family. You might forget the family name or you might forget which family of birds it was which looked that way, but pelican is a family name not easily forgotten and pelican looks are full of distinction and difference.

"We Have Such Long, Golden Brown Bills or Beaks."

"I'm like a pelican, I'm a pelican. Well, it is true, as I said, I call lots of things pelican."

"When I was but a little pelican and found my fish meals in my mother's bill I thought that was a party. I called it a party then and were I a small pelican today I would still call it a party."

"Of course I still am young, but I am not so young as I felt that."

"I call it a party to think that while I was brown when I was first hatched I am white now. Of course the brown pelicans are brown still! That is why they have that family name. They're handsome birds, too."

"Maybe you will think it is conceited of me to say that they are handsome birds, too, but I cannot help but think I'm handsome. And I'm really not conceited about it as I give credit to the pelican family in general, and not to myself in particular, for my beauty."

"They, too, have good appetites. Now I call mealtime a party. I think all pelicans do. We enjoy our food."

"That is the way I think stomachs should be. I think it would be very sad to look at food and wanted to eat and not be able to eat it because one's stomach could not hold any more."

"I wouldn't call it a party if such a thing happened to me. I can eat all I want to eat."

"When I call it a party when I swim. Swimming is such fun. I swim so easily for my size. Generalized webbed feet can't get me through the water mighty quickly."

"I'm like a person who hurries out to the market before everything gets snapped up and I am even superior to such a person for I would hurry along so fast that my market couldn't get away from me! I call mealtime a splendid party."

"Then when we have a nice island home I call it a party home for so many of us make a house together. We live in big colonies, you may know or you may not know. And in case you do not know I am telling you. If you do know I hope you won't mind hearing this again."

"I call it a party when we decide we'd like to travel and settle for awhile somewhere else. We aren't so full of local pride that we won't see the whole world if we so wish it."

"At least we will go a-travelling and lots of us will suddenly decide upon it and we will be off, going toward what we have decided will be our new home. But at the present moment I am sleepy and every good pelican sleeps after eating. I've had a good meal just recently. Yes, I must sleep for all the other pelicans are now asleep. I call an after-meal sleep a pelican party, too!"

R. O. WEAD TALKS TO Y. M. C. A.

Wednesday morning in the Y. M. C. A., County Auditor, R. O. Wead, gave a splendid talk on "The Finer Things of Life." The large group of men in attendance showed their appreciation of his efforts by their hearty ovation. Mr. Wead's next visit to Cedarville College is being looked forward to by all who heard him.

The Greene County Board of Education with County Supt. H. C. Aultman, visited the College Tuesday. They were royally entertained by the entire school. In the chapel service, Supt. Aultman gave a short interesting talk on "What Is Education." Each member of the Board consisting of Pres. W. B. Bryson, J. B. Rife, A. L. Fisher, J. E. Hastings and H. E. Bales were called upon to give a few remarks. They responded with some inspiring words to the student body.

Not satisfied with being merely Normal student, and wishing to make themselves known otherwise, this group of live-wires is planning an operetta entitled "Lelauala." It is an Indian story with beautiful music scores written by Cadman, Mrs. Walter Corry, the music director of the Normal School is directing it. In her able hands the show is sure to be a success. The main cast is being rounded into shape and more interesting facts concerning the play will be released in the near future. The tentative date for the operetta has been set for April 12.

In the Y. W. C. A. with Miss Pauline Nash as chairman, a spirited discussion was held on the subject: "The Ten Commandments of the Twentieth Century." This will be the topic for discussion throughout the entire month. Under Miss Nash's leadership some very fine meetings will be held.

With the term ending but a few weeks away it is time to look forward to the things that accompany the closing. One is the Cedrus, the college annual. This year's edition is the greatest and most elaborate one to be published by the school. The editor of the Cedrus, Miss Mae McKay is working like a Trojan to see that a near perfection stage be reached. Mr. John E. Johnson as assistant editor is capable also of great things. The staff is as follows: Art editor, Miss Dean; Athletic editor, Mr. McMillan; Music, Miss Johnson; Society, Miss Collins; Photo, Miss Webster; Humor, Miss Rittenour; Advertising, Mr. Mr. Williams; and Mr. Turnbull handling the business management. Such an array of students we know will accomplish this thing. The student body is behind them in every way and the success of the Cedrus is assured. It is planned to issue it about the third week in May.

Dr. Frank Crane Says

DO NOT BE ASHAMED OF WORTHY AMBITION

In Abraham Lincoln's first political speech, he said to the voters of Sangamon County: "Every man is said to have his particular ambition. Whether this be true or not, I can say, for one, that I have no other so great as that of being truly esteemed by my fellowmen, by rendering myself worthy of their esteem."

"That was Lincoln's early ambition and his which subsequent events indicate he kept throughout his life.

Contrast with that Napoleon's professed life ambition: "I propose to make the Mediterranean a French lake!"

In the two the whole life story of each is contained—their achievements and their places in the mind of posterity.

What is your ambition?

If you didn't have to tell anyone, but just by wishing after you have gone to bed could make it come true, what one thing would you like to do most?

Would it be to make one hundred thousand dollars, put it into safe bonds, and have an income assured that would enable you to be protected from want the rest of your life?

Would it be to be elected to a high office, to write a "best seller", or get in the movies, or what?

Would it be to have something, to do something, or to be something?

Just what is your particular ambition?

There are two things to remember about ambition.

Ambition of the right sort is one of the most valuable characteristics of a worthwhile man. It is nothing to be ashamed of.

The ready idea was put into words by one of the true gentlemen of the world, Sir Philip Sidney, who, in an age of hypocrisy were the ideals of chivalry in his heart.

"To be ambitious of true honor, of the true glory and perfection of our nature, is the very principle and incentive of virtue but to be ambitious of titles, place, if ceremonial respects and civil pageantry, is as vain and little as the things are which we court."

See America

This Union Pacific "Gold Coast Limited" is crossing from Wyoming into Utah, rolling over snow covered hills 7,000 feet high.

This is real American country, Colorado, Montana, Idaho, the Dakotas, Oregon, Washington, Nevada are your neighbors in this part of the world.

It looks what it is—a great and powerful country. Straight walls of stone capped with pine trees, tower hundreds of feet above you. Telephone and telegraph wires cross in all directions. Good automobile roads run beside the track.

One stops at Salt Lake City to get acquainted with the Angel Moroni and all the land that stretches around him. Bright gold, stands above the temple built by Brigham Young, for "Latter Day Saints."

Just across the way is the Federal Reserve Bank, of solid stone, and beyond towers the snow covered Ogden Range, the wealth of the Utah copper mines hidden in it. Many things are as Brigham Young would have them and as he left them. The Angel Moroni doesn't suspect that the real authority below is the Federal Reserve Bank, the gigantic copper mine on the mountain sides, and the big Union Pacific Railroad.

D. F. Spencer, general passenger agent of the Union Pacific system, says all intelligent human beings should see the famous "Death Valley." For $42, covering all expenses, you can spend two days motoring through the mysterious valley on your way east or west, inspecting in safety the strangest places on earth, stopping over night at a modern inn, built on Furnace Creek. In Death Valley, you stand on the warm sand, far below the level of the Pacific, and look to the west, at the white top of Mount Whitney, highest peak in the United States. The trip must be made between October and the middle of May. In winter, the valley is a desert. During the Death Valley season, you have your comfortable automobiles.

Death Valley has everything that anybody could want—you study brilliant colors of the appropriately named "Funeral Range" on the east, and to the west the tall panama, Uncle Sam's most precipitous mountain range, rising from the floor of Death Valley; more than 300 feet below sea level, to a height of 11,045 feet to the perpetual snow of Telescope Peak. Picturesque and convincing are names of places in that valley, once the bed of an inland sea. Gold, silver, copper, onyx are in these mountains. Many have died searching.

What once were black molten streams of lava reach out into the desert, as they poured down from volcanoes, dead ages ago. You walk over plains of salt a hundred feet deep. Life is scarce there, a few snakes in summer, horned lizards, the chuckwalla lizard, eaten by the Panamint Indians. Above puzzled vultures soar, wondering why the automobile doesn't die, as the donkeys did.

Brief and sufficient are the lines here and there on wooden tombstones, cracked by the heat, a name and "He Ran Out of Water."

The Angel Gabriel has watched many struggles in that valley, when the temperature went to 140. Traditions tell of Plute Indians, standing on the mountainsides, watching one party of white men fall and die three hundred yards from a water hole. One survivor, found a ledge of pure silver, broke off a piece and when he reached civilization had it made into a rifle sight. Many have tried to locate that "gun-sight ledge" of pure silver. You might find it.

Not far away is a beautiful date palm ranch, 175 feet below sea level. Anything will grow if you give it enough water.

And across the Amargosa Desert, you travel to the "Ghost City of Shipohol." Once it had a population of more than 10,000, railroad stations, stores, dance halls, jail and church. All still stand at places on earth, stopping over night at a modern inn, built on Furnace Creek.

This is an interesting country, marvelously fertile fields all the climates and all the products of the earth. Other Americans have prepared the way for you. See America.

Chicago's Sewage Treatment Plant

THE tremendous importance, staggering magnitude and surprising cost involved in the satisfactory and economic disposal of sewage in large cities is brought home by the great "treatment" plant about completed on the north rim of Chicago by the Sanitary District of Chicago.

The method of collecting sewage is well standardized—the sewage from stores, homes and factories drains into small laterals, which drain into larger or main sewers, but the method of disposition varies according to local conditions.

The Sanitary District of Chicago embraces the city proper, the suburban and manufacturing areas between the Indiana and Wisconsin state lines and similar areas northwest, west and southwest of the city. The estimated volume of sewage and industrial waste in this district averaged 885,000,000 gallons daily in 1925.

When this new treatment plant is placed in operation the sewage passed to it will be put through aerated filters, where it will be chemically treated, then run through settling tanks and grit chambers and finally piped to another plant, where it will be dried and sacked preparatory to being sold as fertilizer.

When completed this plant and the necessary connecting sewers, pumps, etc., shall have cost the taxpayers something like $13,500,000, and will be the latest improved scientific sewage treatment plant in the United States. Designed for a population of 800,000, it will serve an area covering 62 square miles.

Several smaller plants serve other sections of the city.

MAKING THE WORLD CHRISTIAN

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 28:16-20; Acts 1:1-5.

GOLDEN TEXT—Go ye therefore and teach all nations.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Telling Everybody About Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Winning the World for Christ.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How We Can Spread the Gospel.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christian Missions the Hope of the World.

1. The Great Commission (Matt. 28:16-20).

1. When and where given (v. 16).

It was shortly before the ascension in a mountain in Galilee where the disciples met Jesus according to appointment.

2. The foundation upon which the commission rests (vv. 17, 18).

In order to prepare the disciples to receive this commission, Christ declared to them that all power in heaven and in earth was given unto Him. Before the disciples would enter upon the execution of this commission, they must be convinced of His Lordship. To create doubt in the minds of believers as to the deity of Jesus Christ is to cut the nerve of missionary endeavor.

3. What the commission is (vv. 19, 20).

1. "Go—teach all nations" (v. 19).

This means make disciples of all the nations, not Jews merely.

2. "Baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (v. 19).

Those who have become disciples of the Lord should receive the rite which signifies their relation to Him.

3. "Teach them to observe all Christ's commandments" (v. 20).

Those who have become Christ's disciples should be taught obedience to all His commandments.

4. The promise attached (v. 20).

Those who obey the king in evangelizing the world have the promise of His unfailing presence.

II. Forbidden by the Holy Spirit to Preach in Asia Minor (Acts 16:6-8).

The inclination of Paul and his companions was to tarry in Asia Minor preaching the Word, but contrary to their inclination they were hurried along. We have here a fine lesson on divine guidance. The Holy Spirit is just as active and faithful in closing doors as in opening them.

"The steps as well as the steps of goomen are ordered of the Lord." We ought as truly to recognize God's hand in the "shut-outs" as in the "open-outs."

III. The Call to Macedonia (Acts 16:9-12).

The gospel having broken the confines of the Jewish city and country, the middle wall of partition having been abolished, the time has come for it to leap across the Aegean sea and begin its conquest on another continent.

1. The vision (v. 9).

Being hemmed in on all sides, a vision was given to Paul of a man of Macedonia pleading for help. This made plain to him the closed doors about him. In finding the divine will, we should look both ways.

2. The advance (vv. 10-12).

As soon as the divine way was known they moved forward therein.

IV. The First Convert in Europe (v. 13-15).

The devout people were accustomed to worship by the riverside. To this humble gathering Paul came and preached to the women assembled there. A certain woman from Thyatira named Lydia, a proselyte, believed his message and was baptized.

The steps in Lydia's conversion are worthy of note for they are typical:

1. Attendance at the place of worship (v. 13).

Usually those whom God is calling are found at the place of prayer.

2. Listening to the preaching of the Word of God (vv. 13, 14).

The instrument used in the conversion of sinners is the Word of God (Rom. 10:17).

3. Her heart was opened by the Lord (v. 14).

Only the Lord can convert a soul. It is our business to preach the Word of God, and it is God's business to open the heart of the inquirer.

4. She was baptized (v. 15).

Every one whose heart the Lord has opened desires to confess Him in baptism.

5. Her household believed (v. 15).

When one is converted those in the home will find it out.

6. Practiced hospitality (v. 15).

Those who have experienced God's saving grace are thus disposed to have part in His work by rendering aid to His ministers.

Pursuit of Happiness

Many people are on the wrong scent in pursuit of happiness. They think it consists in having and getting, and being served by others. It consists in giving and in serving others.—Herald of Gospel Liberty.

Salvation

Salvation is not from you, nor in you, nor by you, nor of you, but only in Christ, and by Christ, and of Christ, but thanks be to God is for you.—Central Bible Hall Record.

Earliest Measurements

Parts of the human body formed the first units of measurement, the inch having developed from the length of the thumb joint. The old measurement called the "hand" was the four fingers across the human hand, and the span, nine inches, came from the space from the end of the thumb to the end of the extended little finger.—Exchange.

Lesson for March 13

MAKING THE WORLD CHRISTIAN

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 28:16-20; Acts 1:1-5.

GOLDEN TEXT—Go ye therefore and teach all nations.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Telling Everybody About Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Winning the World for Christ.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How We Can Spread the Gospel.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christian Missions the Hope of the World.

1. The Great Commission (Matt. 28:16-20).

1. When and where given (v. 16).

It was shortly before the ascension in a mountain in Galilee where the disciples met Jesus according to appointment.

2. The foundation upon which the commission rests (vv. 17, 18).

In order to prepare the disciples to receive this commission, Christ declared to them that all power in heaven and in earth was given unto Him. Before the disciples would enter upon the execution of this commission, they must be convinced of His Lordship. To create doubt in the minds of believers as to the deity of Jesus Christ is to cut the nerve of missionary endeavor.

3. What the commission is (vv. 19, 20).

1. "Go—teach all nations" (v. 19).

This means make disciples of all the nations, not Jews merely.

2. "Baptize them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (v. 19).

Those who have become disciples of the Lord should receive the rite which signifies their relation to Him.

3. "Teach them to observe all Christ's commandments" (v. 20).

Those who have become Christ's disciples should be taught obedience to all His commandments.

4. The promise attached (v. 20).

Those who obey the king in evangelizing the world have the promise of His unfailing presence.

II. Forbidden by the Holy Spirit to Preach in Asia Minor (Acts 16:6-8).

The inclination of Paul and his companions was to tarry in Asia Minor preaching the Word, but contrary to their inclination they were hurried along. We have here a fine lesson on divine guidance. The Holy Spirit is just as active and faithful in closing doors as in opening them.

"The steps as well as the steps of goomen are ordered of the Lord." We ought as truly to recognize God's hand in the "shut-outs" as in the "open-outs."

III. The Call to Macedonia (Acts 16:9-12).

The gospel having broken the confines of the Jewish city and country, the middle wall of partition having been abolished, the time has come for it to leap across the Aegean sea and begin its conquest on another continent.

1. The vision (v. 9).

Being hemmed in on all sides, a vision was given to Paul of a man of Macedonia pleading for help. This made plain to him the closed doors about him. In finding the divine will, we should look both ways.

2. The advance (vv. 10-12).

As soon as the divine way was known they moved forward therein.

IV. The First Convert in Europe (v. 13-15).

The devout people were accustomed to worship by the riverside. To this humble gathering Paul came and preached to the women assembled there. A certain woman from Thyatira named Lydia, a proselyte, believed his message and was baptized.

The steps in Lydia's conversion are worthy of note for they are typical:

1. Attendance at the place of worship (v. 13).

Usually those whom God is calling are found at the place of prayer.

2. Listening to the preaching of the Word of God (vv. 13, 14).

The instrument used in the conversion of sinners is the Word of God (Rom. 10:17).

3. Her heart was opened by the Lord (v. 14).

Only the Lord can convert a soul. It is our business to preach the Word of God, and it is God's business to open the heart of the inquirer.

4. She was baptized (v. 15).

Every one whose heart the Lord has opened desires to confess Him in baptism.

5. Her household believed (v. 15).

When one is converted those in the home will find it out.

6. Practiced hospitality (v. 15).

Those who have experienced God's saving grace are thus disposed to have part in His work by rendering aid to His ministers.

Pursuit of Happiness

Many people are on the wrong scent in pursuit of happiness. They think it consists in having and getting, and being served by others. It consists in giving and in serving others.—Herald of Gospel Liberty.

Salvation

Salvation is not from you, nor in you, nor by you, nor of you, but only in Christ, and by Christ, and of Christ, but thanks be to God is for you.—Central Bible Hall Record.

Our Buying Power

Through It We Sell for Less and You Buy for Less Here

In the Morning After Breakfast

Scientists say that the human mind is capable of a keener perception of relative things while the day is still young.

This, it would seem, should apply equally to relative values in goods needed for the home and the person.

If one is capable of making selections before noon that are more in keeping with actual needs, the morning hours would appear to be the time for most satisfactory buying.

Shopping can be done more leisurely during forenoon, especially on Saturdays, for, as a rule, this store is less crowded than later in the day.

Leisurely shopping usually avoids mistakes and makes your experience more generally satisfying.

CANDY

During the long winter evenings the whole family enjoy a dish of home-made candies.
Chocolate Fudge.—Take one cupful each of brown sugar, white sugar, one-third of a cupful of corn syrup, two tablespoonsful of butter, and one-half cupful of milk; add a square or two of grated chocolate, boil to the soft ball stage and cool in the pan. Stir until creamy, then put out in a well-buttered pan to chill. Cut into squares before it gets too hard.

Peanut Brittle.—This is a candy well liked by the young folks. But the older ones must beware of tooth pills. Roll or chop the peanuts or leave them whole if desired. Melt a cupful or two of sugar in a smooth omelet pan or frying pan and when well melted, but not too brown, stir in the peanuts, add a bit of soda and salt and pour out quickly in a large greased pan to cool. Break into pieces when cool.

Divinity Fudge.—Boil together until brittle two cupfuls of sugar, one-half cupful of corn syrup, three-fourths of a cupful of water. Let this boil until a drop in cold water becomes brittle. Beat the whites of two eggs, then pour over this boiling hot syrup very slowly, beating all the while. Flavor, add one cupful of nuts. Pour into a greased pan or drop by spoonfuls on a baking sheet.

Panocha.—Take three cupfuls of light brown sugar, one cupful of milk, one teaspoonful of butter; boil to the soft ball stage. Take from the fire, add one teaspoonful of vanilla. Cool, then beat thick, adding a cupful of walnut meats.

Praline.—Two cupfuls of powdered sugar, one-half cupful of maple syrup, one-half cupful of cream, cook until it forms a soft ball, then add one cupful of blanched almonds. Spread on a sheet and cut into squares.
